

Are You Interested in Becoming a Part of a School Partnership Team in Your School District?

What is a School Partnership Team?

The school partnership team will consist of parents, students, teachers, school administrators and community members. The school partnership team will:

- find new and creative ways to involve parents in their child' education
- work to implement effective parental involvement polices
- regularly assess the school climate and parental involvement
- develop welcome packets for new families
- develop a parent mentor program to assist new families to the district (www.idra.org)

School Partnerships Teams

- improve school programs and school climate
- increase academic achievement
- help students develop positive attitudes and behavior
- connect families with schools and community
- provide family services and support
- increase parents' skills and leadership (National PTA, 1997)

School Partnership Teams will help parents find new and creative ways to be involved in their child's education. Become a part of the team!
